

Food and Drink Festival

Returning in 2017 is the popular Food and Drink Festival. One of the biggest in the South East of England, the Farnham Food and Drink Festival is a day not to be missed!

Castle Street will be transformed into a bustling marketplace once again as sellers across the South of England offer tasty treats to try and buy. From local suppliers to handmade crafted chocolate, this event is a foodie heaven!

Local musicians will also be entertaining the crowds throughout the day and other activities will be going on, keeping the entire family entertained.
