Welcome to Farnham

Farnham will surprise you. Just an hour's drive from London, on modern high speed roads, take the turning and you enter a different world. Farnham is an old English market town with narrow streets lined with some of the finest Georgian architecture in the South of England with a parish church and castle dating back to the 12th Century. Farnham has a host of attractions for visitors, and its historic character combines with the best of modern facilities.

With a wealth of tempting opportunities for escaping to the countryside, shopping, eating out, sightseeing, visiting galleries or just sitting in gardens and flower filled yards soaking up the enchanting atmosphere. Farnham always has a warm welcome for visitors.
