

Allotment Lecture 2018

Creating biodiversity through wildflowers

7-9pm on Wednesday 7 March at Farnham Town Council

Organised by Farnham Town Council for Farnham allotment holders, this year the Winter Lecture will be led by Helen Gillespie-Brown from Wildflower Turf Ltd.

Based in Hampshire, Wildflower Turf is the pioneer and leading supplier of wildflower turf and bio-diverse, species rich products in the UK. The talk will cover topics such as:

- Supporting biodiversity and encouraging pollinators
- Edible wildflowers
- Moving away from chemicals/pesticides and controlling pests with wildflowers

If you would like to come along to the evening please email Lara on lara.miller@farnham.gov.uk or call 01252 712667 to book your free place. Guests welcome.

Tea, Coffee and biscuits will be served during the interval.
