

Secret Gardens Competition 2020

Secret Gardens of Farnham

The year's Secret Gardens of Farnham competition is going ahead but will be judged remotely.

Who can enter

The competition is open to gardeners who live in Farnham. This includes Badshot Lea, Hale, Upper Hale, The Bourne, Boundstone, Heath End, Moor Park, Rowledge, Weybourne, Wrecclesham and the town centre.

How to enter

Send 3 photos and a small written piece (no more than 100 words for each category) by email or post. You are welcome to enter as many categories as you like:

Judging criteria

The judges will look for evidence from the photos of:-

- Planting, annual bedding, shrub borders and other general planting
- Lawns
- Hedges
- Vegetables
- Compost areas
- Areas for wildlife
- Environmental responsibility

Categories

- Best courtyard
- Best hanging basket or container
- Best front, back or small garden
- Best large garden
- Best vegetable garden
- Best wildlife garden
- Best family lockdown activity (bug hotel, nest box, small wildlife pond or flower bed.)
- Best care home garden

Deadline for submission

Submit your photos and written evidence by Friday 17 July 2020.

Prizes

Each entry will receive a judges' report and an award certificate.

All entrants will be invited to the Farnham in Bloom Awards' ceremony in October. Please note this could change depending on the Government's social distancing guidelines.

The winner in each category will receive a trophy and certificate. First prize is £50 in garden vouchers. The winner will hold the trophy for one year. Second and Third places will receive certificates and garden vouchers.

A Gardener of the Year Award will also be given by the judges.
