AN OPEN EVENT

Welcome to the fifth annual Farnham Literary Festival, a vibrant celebration of literature in all its forms.

Farnham Town Council, in collaboration with its festival partners, has programmed over 60 events featuring more than 100 writers, performers and presenters across the 11 days.

From 5- 15 March, dive into the world of books, novels, poetry, theatre, film, spoken word, creative writing, music, illustration and more. Engage in interactive workshops, listen to fascinating author talks and panel discussions and immerse yourself in captivating performances. With such a varied lineup, there truly is something for everyone.

The festival also shines a spotlight on Farnham itself, from its welcoming community spaces and distinctive buildings to the many venues and organisations that bring the town to life.

We are equally delighted to once again invite young people to connect with inspiring authors and creative voices to inspire confidence, curiosity and a lifelong connection to books with this year's schools programme initiative, run in partnership with the Blue Bear Bookshop.

This year sees the introduction of a film element to the festival

Farnham Literary Festival

programme, featuring a lineup of film-based workshops and talks, with an emphasis on storytelling through different mediums.

There is so much to uncover. Use this brochure and visit www.farnhamliteraryfestival.co.uk for full details and keep up to date on the latest festival news by following @farnhamlitfest on Instagram and Facebook.

Prepare to be inspired, informed and thoroughly entertained.

Author Talk: Digital Overload: Dr Martha Deiros Collado in conversation with TJ Power

St Andrew's Church | 7.30pm - 8.30pm | £10

Digital Overload brings authors Dr Martha Deiros Collado (The Smartphone Solution) and TJ Power (The DOSE Effect) together to explore how constant connectivity is reshaping children's attention, wellbeing and relationships. Drawing on psychology and neuroscience, they will unpack when and how to give your child a smartphone, reducing screentime, balancing connection and boundaries in modern childhood and the science behind our addiction.

Comedy: Joel Dommett: Happy Idiot

Great Hall, Farnham Maltings | 7.30pm - 9.10pm | £25

Joel returns to his stand-up roots with a brand-new show. With glamorous tales from behind the camera and less glamorous anecdotes of first-time fatherhood, Joel remains a charming, exhausted, happy idiot.
For ages 14+

Thursday 06 March

Author Talk: From Acorns to Oaks: An evening with Lord Heseltine

St Andrew's Church | 6.30pm - 7.30pm | £11

Join us for an evening with Lord Heseltine, a figure who has played a defining role in British politics for more than sixty years. As one of the country's most prominent statesmen, he reflects on his remarkable political career, sharing new revelations about his time in Margaret Thatcher's cabinet, his role in John Major's administration in the 1990s and his later return to the centre of power when David Cameron invited him back as an adviser. This promises to be a comprehensive and thought-provoking evening with a statesman whose influence has shaped national debate for decades.

Friday 06 March

Performance: Trouble, Struggle, Bubble and Squeak

Great Hall, Farnham Maltings | 7.30pm - 8.30pm | £5 - £20

Award-winning theatre maker Victoria Melody joined a historical re-enactment society...because we all deal with divorce in different ways! Spending weekends as a Musketeer trying to get her head straight, she uncovered the story of 17th-century radicals - The Diggers. What started out as a personal search for happiness turned into a quest to find the Diggers of today. Directed by Mark Thomas, this show celebrates the ordinary people still shaping history. For ages 14+.

These three international bestselling authors, Ruth Ware, Ava Glass and Elly Griffiths, are masters of writing books you can't put down, creating plots and characters that stay with you long after the final page. What draws them to such dark, twisting plots? With host Frankie Pellatt, they will discuss how they build believable, pulse-pounding narratives, in this event packed with thrills, insights and the occasional plot twist.

Awards Ceremony and Open Mic: Farnham Poetry Competition

St Mark's Church | 5.30pm | Free

The winners and runners-up of the Farnham Poetry Competition will be announced at a warm and welcoming awards ceremony, where prize-winners are encouraged to read their poems. An open-mic session will follow for anyone who wishes to share their work. After the 17-and-under awards are announced, there will be a short interval so children may leave before the over-18 category is announced.

Panel: Murder They Wrote: Crime Fiction Uncovered

Farnham Town Hall | 7pm - 8pm | £11

Two bestselling authors, Louise Candlish and Ellie Levenson, reveal how they craft their fast-paced, fast-faced plots, uncover murder in unexpected places and discover what draws them to explore the darkest acts committed by desperate people. Hosted by the "queen of spy fiction" Ava Glass, this gripping panel promises to be an enthralling journey into some dark, shadowy and suspenseful places.

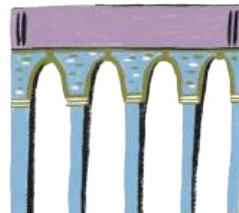

Saturday 14 March

Performance: Hannah James and Toby Kuhn

Great Hall, Farnham Maltings | 8pm - 9.45pm | £16

In a journey through sound, texture, emotion and rhythm, Hannah and Toby navigate the paths of growth, discovery, darkness and light, exploring the dialogue of cello, voice, accordion and foot percussion in new and unexpected ways.

Sunday 15 March

Workshop: Writing Poetry of Heritage and Identity

Garden Gallery, Museum of Farnham | 10am - 12pm | £15

Join Mslexia prize-winning poet Nia Broomhall to create poetry that explores the unique story of who you are. In this practical two hour session, we will read and discuss poems to inspire your own writing in a warm and supportive environment, and you'll leave with three or four first drafts. Beginners and seasoned poets all welcome.

Performance: Megson Family Folk Show

Great Hall, Farnham Maltings | 11.30am - 12.30pm | £10 - £36

Award-winning folk duo, Megson, perform a gentle, entertaining concert specifically for younger children, blending their infectious mix of heavenly vocals and lush harmonies. Featuring folk songs old and new from their albums When I Was a Lad and Little Bird.

For ages 0-8

Workshop: How to Get Published

Garden Gallery, Museum of Farnham | 2pm - 3.30pm | £15

Learn about the different routes into publication, and the realities of each, in How to Get Published, a practical workshop covering both traditional publishing and self-publishing with a clear-eyed look at what each path really involves, from submissions and deals to rights and revenue. Led by award-winning freelance marketing consultant and author Eleanor Pilcher.

Author Talk: Vince Cable in conversation with Jeremy Hunt

St Andrew's Church | 3pm - 4pm | £11

Two former Cabinet heavyweights meet for a wide-ranging conversation on Britain's future. Drawing on Can Britain Be Great Again?, Sir Jeremy Hunt sets out a case for national renewal at home and abroad. Sir Vince Cable, author of Eclipsing the West, offers a global perspective shaped by shifting power beyond the West. Moderated by Georgina Godwin, together they debate decline, opportunity and Britain's place in a rapidly changing world, with audience questions and lively, unscripted exchange throughout.

Panel: Neither Here nor There: Epic Journeys From History

Farnham Town Hall | 4.30pm - 5.30pm | £11

Step aboard for an epic voyage of discovery. From the globetrotting adventures of Charles Dickens, as told by his great-great-great granddaughter, to the compelling story of the aviators who fought to be the first women to fly across the Atlantic, via a gazetteer of the world's shadowy corners, where legends live rooted in memory.

Performance: Stoppard on the Radio

Brightwells Creative Space | 6pm - 7pm | £10

Farnham Theatre Association and the Farnham Rep present a tribute to the late Sir Tom Stoppard (Arcadia, Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead and Shakespeare in Love). One of the most performed and admired playwrights of his generation, Stoppard captivated audiences worldwide with his wit, imagination, and intense attention to language. A cast of professional actors celebrates Stoppard's genius in a rehearsed reading of one of his rarely heard plays written for BBC Radio.

Awards Ceremony: Farnham's First Five Pages

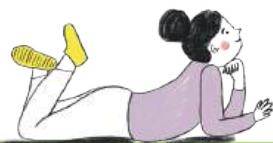

Farnham Town Hall | 7.30pm - 8.30pm | Free
(please confirm attendance in advance)

All longlisted and shortlisted entrants are invited to attend this ceremony to celebrate the winners of the 2026 Farnham's First Five Pages writing competition. Meet the judges, discover this year's winners and listen to readings of their work. First place, The Paris Prize for Fiction, is sponsored by The New York Times and Sunday Times bestselling author, B.A. Paris.

This year marks a proud milestone for Farnham Literary Festival as it celebrates its fifth year. What began as an ambitious local initiative has rapidly grown into one of the South's most vibrant literary events, firmly placing Farnham on the cultural map.

Launched in 2022 as an initiative led by Farnham Town Council, the festival was born from a passion for the arts. Since its inauguration, the festival has gone from strength to strength, attracting acclaimed authors, enthusiastic audiences and widespread recognition. Over the years, Farnham has welcomed hundreds of authors, illustrators and performers including Sandi Toksvig, Dame Jacqueline Wilson, Mick Herron, B.A. Paris, Hugh Bonneville, Nick Sharratt, Michelle Paver, Robert Thorogood, Santa Montefiore, Damien Lewis and Dr Alison Weir.

Farnham has a rich literary heritage from the influential journalism and political activism of William Cobbett to J.M. Barrie's magical Peter Pan taking flight, to being home to both Edgar Mittelholzer, the most prolific novelist produced by the Caribbean, and to Victor Ambrus, distinctive storybook illustrations.

The festival thrives thanks to the invaluable enthusiasm, contributions and collaborations of partners, organisations, community groups, volunteers, venues and sponsors. Their commitment helps to create a welcoming atmosphere and ensures the festival continues to grow and prosper.

The 2025 festival was the biggest yet, with over 50 events taking place across 11 venues over 11 days. An estimated 3,000 tickets were sold, marking record attendance that saw audiences enjoy engaging discussions, inspiring talks and memorable moments with renowned authors. In a fitting celebration of four years, the festival welcomed four headline authors, all-round entertainer Reverend Richard Coles, fresh from the jungle, bestselling novelist Louis de Bernières, beloved television presenter Lorraine Kelly and the UK's biggest-selling children's author, David Walliams.

Celebrating 5 years

With its strong foundations, literary legacy and passionate community, Farnham Literary Festival continues to write an inspiring story of its own and this is just the beginning.

"I'm delighted to have just been at the Farnham Literary Festival in a fantastic venue selling heaps and heaps of books to the nicest audience I've ever had. It's been just wonderful... I'm going home very joyful." - Dame Jacqueline Wilson

Schools Programme

Welcome to the 2026 Farnham Literary Festival Schools' Programme!

Farnham Town Council is delighted to announce our 2026 Schools' Programme, a celebration of imagination, storytelling and the joy of reading. In partnership with The Blue Bear Bookshop, and with the generous support of sponsors and the local community the Farnham Literary Festival once again invites young people to connect with inspiring local talent, bestselling authors and creative voices from across the literary world.

At a time when literacy and a love of reading are being championed nationally more than ever, this programme aims to inspire confidence, curiosity and a lifelong connection to books. Through author talks, workshops and interactive sessions, students will be encouraged to explore language, stories and their own creative potential in meaningful and exciting ways.

The Schools' Programme is made possible by the continued support of Farnham Town Council, our valued sponsors, local businesses, dedicated volunteers and the talented authors who so generously share their time and expertise. Together, we are proud to create opportunities that support literacy development while sparking imagination and a passion for learning.

Join us in 2026 for another inspiring celebration of stories, creativity and community at the Farnham Literary Festival Schools Programme.
